

SAN PATRICIO/ARANSAS COUNTY AGRICULTURAL & HOMEMAKERS SHOW
GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS
January 20-28, 2018

GENERAL CONDUCT: Each Exhibitor, Parent, Ag Science Teacher, FCCLA Teacher, Extension Agent, and Adult Leader is on his honor to abide by the rules and report any violations to the A&H Show Board of Directors. Upon entry each individual agrees to read and comply with all the rules of the show as provided herein. An exhibitor who violates any of the following rules will forfeit all privileges and premiums or ribbons and be subject to punishment as the Board of Directors may order including a minimum penalty of loss to the resale value of the animal withheld from their sale proceeds, forfeiture of any premium money, exclusion from entry or exhibiting any or all individual's animals or a maximum penalty of permanent disbarment from participation in future shows. Penalties will be prescribed by the San Patricio/Aransas Counties A&H Show Board of Directors or it's duly appointed representatives.

1. The organization reserves to its board of directors the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations and to arbitrarily settle and determine all matters in regard here-to, and the right to amend or add to these rules as its judgment may determine. The board will hold a general meeting in the month of March following the 2018 show. Any rule changes, additions, corrections, or decisions made or addressed by the board of advisors will be FINAL by an April meeting. No further changes will be made prior to the 2018 show. An exhibitor who violates any of the following rules will forfeit all privileges and premium or ribbons and be subject to punishment as the Board of Directors may order including a minimum penalty of loss to the resale value of the animal withheld from their sale proceeds, forfeiture of any premium money, exclusion from entry or exhibiting any or all individuals animals or a maximum penalty of permanent disbarment from participation in future shows. All protests must be made through the supervising Agricultural Science Teachers, FCCLA Teachers or County Extension Agents in a timely manner.

Any direct criticism or interference with judges, show management or county personnel on the part of any person is prohibited. Appropriate action will be taken by Board of Directors.

2. Only bona-fide 4-H, Jr. FFA, FFA and FCCLA members who reside in or go to school in San Patricio or Aransas Counties or those who have received an exception as per Rule 28 are eligible to show, exhibit and/or sell in the San Patricio/Aransas County Agricultural and Homemakers Show. A bona-fide 4-H, Jr. FFA, FFA and FCCLA member is one who attends 60% of regular club meetings. High school seniors graduating in the fall semester preceding the show will be eligible to participate in the January show. 4-H, Jr. FFA, FFA and FCCLA members in third grade through 12th grade as of September 1, 2017 and enrolled in a primary or secondary school at the time of entry in the 2018 A&H show will be eligible to show in the January show. The San Patricio/Aransas Agricultural and Homemaker Show honors the Texas Education Agency - No Pass, No Play rule. A failing student will be unable to exhibit their project or have anyone exhibit their project for them. The show will request from school districts a list of ineligible participants prior to the show and will not be held responsible for non-compliance should a district fail to inform the show of ineligible participants. Students must be eligible at check-in. Any type of ineligibility as determined by the school district will be considered ineligibility for the show. Any student that violates the no pass no show rule will not be allowed to show the following year.
3. All exhibitors will be under the control of the General Superintendent, but the organization will in no case be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur to animals or persons.
4. APPLICATION FOR ENTRY--All applications for entries must be made out on the official forms, signed by the exhibitor and filed in the office of the director of the show. In all cases the right is reserved to reject or accept conditionally any application for entry. County Extension Agents, FCCLA Teachers and Agricultural Science Teachers shall certify all entries. Exhibitors name on entry card must be same as name on Social Security Card.
5. TIME OF ENTRY--Official entry cards and entry fees due no later than November 15, 2017 by 12:00 noon All entries and fees must be made together and at one time by the Agricultural Science Teachers, FCCLA Teachers, 4-H club adult leaders and/or County Extension Agent. The entries must be accompanied by an official Group Summary Sheet prepared and approved by the Agricultural Science Teachers, FCCLA Teacher, 4-H club leader or FFA Chapters and entry fees. The summary sheets will be checked against the official entry cards. A copy of summary sheet will be returned to 4-H club leaders, County Extension Agent, FCCLA Teachers and Agricultural Science Teachers. Changes or corrections can be made until December 1.

6. Each exhibitor must furnish feed, feeding and watering trough and vessels and care of his or her own exhibit. Initial bedding will be provided for Poultry. Additional bedding will have to be provided by the exhibitors.
7. Animals must be cared for daily (i.e. feed and water) until final disposition on Sunday morning. Division superintendent will be in charge of compliance. Failure to comply will result in forfeiture of resale premium or auction proceeds. These proceeds will be donated to the general scholarship fund or the auction scholarship fund.
8. Only creditable animals and poultry will be allowed in the show. Poultry and rabbits will be sifted by out of county judges during check-in/weigh-in. Sifted poultry and rabbits will be removed from the show ground Wednesday following sifting.
9. The decision of the judges will be final in all cases, except where mistake, fraud, misrepresentation or collusion not discovered at the time of the award is proven. In such case, the president, or such referee as he may appoint, may make decision, or the case may be referred to the Board of Directors from whose decision there can be no appeal.
10. REMOVAL OF EXHIBITS--No animal or articles on exhibition may be removed from the grounds without a release permit by respective Department Chairman. All animals must remain in place until the buyer takes charge of them or until released by the Department Chairman.
11. The premium money shall be based upon the funds available and may be adjusted or altered by the Board of Directors.
12. Exhibitors of market animals (steers, lambs, goats and hogs) must declare on the A&H Show entry card at weigh in time whether to sell or not to sell (non-auctioned) entries at market price through the show. Signature of exhibitor or parent on entry card will make agreement binding.
13. Bids on re-sale market animals will be to highest bidder.
14. PARTNERSHIP-BREEDING LIVESTOCK AND HORSES--Entering of livestock under a partnership arrangement will be authorized when partners concerned are both bona-fide FFA, FCCLA, or 4-H members or partnership arrangements between Parents and Sons and/or Daughters. Animals entered under this arrangement must be registered in the records of their respective breed association in the name of said Parents & Son(s) and/or Daughter(s). This partnership name should also appear on the certificate of registration on animals entered in County A&H Show. Extension Agents, FCCLA Teachers and Agricultural Science Teachers must be aware of such partnerships and be able to verify such arrangements if the need arises.
15. EXHIBITIONS--All entries in the show must be exhibited by the owners, except when an exhibitor has more than one entry in one class or cannot be present to show their animals. In these cases, any bona-fide 4-H member, FCCLA member or FFA member with the approval of the Chairman of that department may exhibit these animals. Only bona-fide 4-H, FCCLA and FFA members residing in San Patricio or Aransas Counties will be permitted to exhibit in the show.
16. Washing of all animals permitted only in designated area.
17. RIBBONS--BREEDING ANIMALS--The number of ribbons to be awarded in each class will be the same as the number of premium places. Buckles for Breed Champions and Rosettes for Reserve Breed Champions.
18. RIBBONS--ALL MARKET DIVISIONS--Ribbons will be presented to 60% of the entries with a minimum of 5 ribbons per class and a maximum of 10 ribbons per class. Buckles for Breed and Reserve Breed Champions.
19. Any matter that arises which might be termed a hardship, may be presented to the Board of Directors for review and will be ruled upon by the Board.
20. Exhibitors will be responsible for removing litter and animals from rabbit and poultry coops Saturday morning between 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m., except animals going to auction.

21. Parents or other adults will not be allowed to assist junior exhibitors in the show ring during judging.
22. Exhibitors showing goats, lambs, poultry, steers and rabbits must declare which animal they will sell in the auction sale no later than 30 minutes after the hog show unless showing a hog. All exhibitors have until 30 minutes following the steer show to declare which animal they will sell in the auction.
23. All market animals except steers and poultry must be weighed in the show. All poultry must be checked in by the Poultry Division Chairman. Declare weight as steers are classified. All other market animals will be weighed under the direction of Department Chairman, and will be assigned to the appropriate weight classes (as nearly equal in number as possible, but so that all animals of the same weight will show in the same class). There will be no reweighing of entries at initial weigh-in as the first weight counts. Exception: Hogs : One reweigh on opposite scale immediately. All animals must be shown in the division entered.
24. Breed Champions and Reserve Breed Champions of the show will be selected for each breed. Grand Champion and Reserve Champion of the Show will be selected from the Breed Champions. Breed Champion Market Steers, Hogs, Lambs, Goats or Heifers will compete for the Grand Champion Market Steer, Hog, Lamb, Goat or Heifer of the show. After the Grand Champion has been selected the Reserve Champion of the division that furnished the Grand Champion competes with the other Division Champions for Reserve Grand Champion.
25. All animals having any modification of dewlap or sheath or injection of oil, air or any other foreign substances that will alter physical appearance to any part of the body will eliminate exhibitors ability to qualify for auction and of all future entries in the San Patricio Agricultural and Homemakers Show for all family members. This does not include dehorning and tail docking.
26. All Market entries can be shown one time only in San Patricio Agricultural and Homemakers Show.
27. All exhibitors must acknowledge their project to the respective supervisor, County Extension Agent, Club Manager, FCCLA Teacher or Agricultural Science Teacher.
28. Animals must be in immediate possession and under daily care of the exhibitor on day of ownership deadline and throughout the feeding period. Animals must be cared for in San Patricio or Aransas Counties. Any exception to the residency or animal housing rule(s) shall be made on an individual basis by the Board of Directors each year at or prior to the April Rules meeting.
29. Each division will meet following the current A&H Show to suggest rule changes and suggest judges for their division. Committee members, exhibitors and parents will be allowed one vote per family. Ag Science Teachers, FCCLA Teachers and County Extension Agents will also be allowed to vote at all division meetings. Only one Ag Science teacher per school may vote at division meetings.
30. Only animals being exhibited or service animals assisting handicapped persons shall be allowed on show grounds.
31. Entries that do not have entry fees (in case of returned check) paid in full by December 15 will have all entries returned and exhibitor will not be eligible to show in the January show.
32. All judges will sign a letter of confirmation stating they will not judge or participate in any event in San Patricio or Aransas Counties before date they will judge A&H Show. A signed copy of the letter must be returned to A&H Show office.
33. Using cell phones by the exhibitors and judges while in the show ring is prohibited.
34. Scales are allowed in barn the night before sift. No more than 4 scales are allowed in barn. All scales brought into barn will be allowed to be used by any person weighing show pigs. Scales must be out by 7:00 a.m. the day of weigh in.
35. Parents, exhibitors, breeders, or any other individual on the exhibitor's behalf are forbidden to approach any buyer before, during and/or after the auction to request the animal be returned to the exhibitor.

36. Board of Directors will enforce the above stated rules and address any infractions. Consequences for infractions may include but are not limited to loss of premium monies and awards. Exhibitors could be subject to disqualification from the auction and future participation in the San Patricio Agricultural and Homemakers Show.
37. All market steers, hogs, goats, lambs and breeding beef presented for check-in into the A&H Show must have the appropriate validation tags. All poultry must have assigned wing/electronic bands and market rabbits must have appropriate tattoos.
38. Only those projects listed on the official premium auction list will be allowed to be presented in the auction arena. Substituting one project for another will not be allowed. Exhibitors that present a project in the auction line up that is not on the official auction list are subject to disqualification from the auction.
38. Livestock trailers will be parked in the trailer parking lot.
39. Keep a judge for 2 years, at the discretion of the A&H Board of Advisors.
40. Check in times are for the purpose of scheduling and organization and not for the purpose of qualification and disqualification although any exceptions must be approved by the appropriate division superintendent.
41. If you nominate a candidate, from the floor, for the Board of Advisors they must be from the community you represent.

SANITARY REGULATIONS

Regulations governing admission of Livestock into Show, Fairs, and Exhibitions will be followed.

SPECIFIC RULES MARKET STEERS

1. All Beef cattle entries must be tied with two (2) halters or a halter and neck rope.
2. All market steers must be dehorned.
3. Classes for each division will be Class 1 Lights and Class 2 Heavies. If there are 15 or more entries in any division a third class will be established, weights to be equally divided into three classes. Classes to be called heavy, medium and light weight. If there are six or less in any division the two classes be combined. A class cannot have more than 8 steers. At the discretion of the Beef Cattle Superintendent classes will be broken by weight, as fairly as possible. Additional classes may be added, if needed, to minimize large weight variances with each class.
4. Beef animals must be halter broken and be controlled by exhibitor.
5. Steers will be classified at check in time at A&H Show. During classifying only exhibitor will walk their own animal through classification.
6. If individual steer breaks loose two times in a class it will be excused from the ring on the third break. If animal is deemed unruly by Division Superintendent it will be excused from the ring. Animal will not be allowed to be exhibited tied to the rail of the show ring.
7. There will be no paint, powder or uses of any substances to change, alter or enhance the color on the body of the steer ONLY WATER. Animal will be subjected to being wiped down.
8. All steers will have major show tags, State validated steers will be nose printed.
9. If a steer loses an ear tag, the exhibitor must contact their Ag Science Teacher, FCCLA Teacher, County Extension Agent or Club Leader immediately so that it may be reported and revalidated.
10. All steers will be slick sheared to 1/4 inch to be determined by Classifier. Hair must be clipped over entire body including head and legs, except tail switch.
11. Any liquid or substance not considered part of an accepted and normal diet for livestock is deemed illegal and inhumane. For example, the use of alcoholic and carbonated beverages as a drench or filler. Examples of accepted and normal diet would include water (non-carbonated), electrolytes, FDA approved medications (Koapectine).
12. The pumping of cattle will be allowed, in the presence of the show veterinarian. The volume to be pumped must also be supervised by the show veterinarian and any Exhibitor not adhering to and following this supervised pumping, will be immediately disqualified from the show.
13. Weigh back of 5% to police the use of drench guns or cattle pumps in order to force liquids into cattle. First and second place in every class will be weighed back prior to Breed Champion selection. If 1st or 2nd place is weighed out next place moves up and is weighed.
14. All beef animals must be bedded on shavings and pine pellets, not shavings alone.
15. Beef Committee has the right to weigh any steer after classification if the committee feels the steer is not 1000 lb. minimum weight. If minimum weight is not attained the animal will be removed from barn as soon as possible.
16. Classifier has the right to sift calves for quality.

GENERAL RULES FOR GOAT TYING, ALL ROPING EVENTS AND FIGURE 8'S

GOAT TYING:

1. Starting line will be same as the poles and barrels starting line.
2. Goat shall be staked with a ten (10) foot 5/8" hard twist cotton rope. Goat holder shall hold the goat at full length of rope behind stake until contestant starts the run. A collar or non-slip knot must be used on goats.
3. Goat must be staked at 105 feet from starting line (fifth pole stake).
4. The contestant must be mounted on a horse and must ride from starting line to goat, dismount, throw goat by hand (if goat is down when contestant reaches it, the goat must be cleared of the ground) and tie any three (3) feet together with leather, nylon or pigging string, and step back clear of goat. (Must stand at least 3 feet from goat before judges 5 second count will begin.)
5. Goat must remain tied for at least five (5) seconds.
6. Three legs should be securely tied to qualify as a legal tie; there will be one or more wraps, a half hitch or a secure knot. Once contestant signals his/her tie is complete, he/she may not again touch the tie or goat. This would result in a no-time.
7. In the event of a timer malfunction, then contestant will receive a re-run and will compete again on the same goat that he/she originally ties.
8. Goat is to be changed after 5 contestants have competed on it.
9. Any discrepancies must be called to the attention of the judge before the event is over. After the next event begins then all decisions are final.

BREAKAWAY ROPING:

1. Breakaway Roping to change from bell collar catch to rope must go over head and can break away at any point after. Change from TYRA Rules to THSR Rules.
2. Two loops allowed. If the rope leaves the contestants hand, whether by accident or thrown, it is considered thrown. May re-build loop only one time. (This will apply to all roping events.)
3. The roper must have a handkerchief or a piece of cloth tied to the end of the rope.
4. The end of rope must be tied to the saddle horn with a piece of string. If the rope breaks away from the saddle horn before the contestant has roped his/her calf, then it is considered a no-time. Contestant may not break string with hand.
5. There will be a one (1) minute time limit. After time has elapsed, the contestant will receive a no-time.
6. Contestant must throw the rope. Cannot corner calf and place rope on animal. This will result in a no-time (This will apply to all roping events.)
7. All calves will be chute-run. (This will apply to all roping events.)
8. All calves will be numbered and the person opening the gate will be responsible for noting which calf the contestant is roping. (This will apply to all roping events.)
9. In case of malfunction or interference with run, at the judge's discretion, the contestant may receive a re-run and will compete on the same calf noted by gate opener. (This will apply to all roping events.)
10. Any discrepancies must be called to the attention of the judge before the event is over. After the next event begins then all decisions are final. (This will apply to all roping events)
11. Back gate will be closed (This will apply to all roping events.)

12. If after all roping events we only have 1 or less champions and we are lacking the reserve champion, we will rerun the breakaway roping to fill the reserve spot or the Grand and Reserve. No All Around points will be allowed for a rerun to fill the Grand and Reserve Grand spots.

TIEDOWN CALF ROPING:

1. Catch as catch can. (Rope must hold calf until roper gets hand on calf. Once roper had touched calf and the rope comes off, roper must not lose contact with calf.)
2. Rope must be tied hard and fast to the saddle horn.
3. After roping calf, roper must dismount, go down rope and throw calf by hand and cross any three of the calf's feet.
4. A legal tie shall consist of one or two wraps and a half hitch.
5. If calf is down when roper reaches it, it must be thrown by hand, with at least three feet hanging and to the satisfaction of the judge. If ropers hand is on the calf when the calf falls, calf is considered thrown by hand.
6. After the roper has signaled for time to stop, the roper may not touch the calf or tie until the Judge has completed his examination.
7. The calf must stay tied for six (6) seconds from the time the roper has remounted his horse and taken two steps forward. If the rope comes off calf before the roper remounts then the six (6) second clock starts immediately after roper has backed away from calf.
8. Neck rope must be used. (This will apply to tiedown and ribbon roping.)
9. There will be one-minute time limit. After time has elapsed contestant received no time.
10. If roper is unable to get calf up, roper can take 10 second penalty to finish run.

RIBBON ROPING

1. Catch as catch can.
2. Roper must have one foot on the ground before the runner can remove the ribbon from the calf's tail and cross the finish line.
3. The rope must be on the calf when the roper or runner first touches the calf.
4. Runner must remove the ribbon from calf's tail and run back to finish line with ribbon in hand. Crossing the finish line without ribbon in hand will result in a no-time.
5. If runner sees there is no ribbon on the calf's tail, he/she should call attention to it immediately.
6. There will be one-minute time limit. After time has elapsed contestant received no time.
7. If roper is unable to get calf up, roper can take 10 second penalty to finish run.

1. Contestant will start from behind the starting line, run to the left or the right of the first barrel, then continue the figure eight (8) pattern.
2. The time starts when contestant crosses the starting line and stops when contestant crosses it on the way back after completing the pattern.
3. A five (5) second penalty for each barrel knocked over. If a contestant knocks over a barrel and it stands up again on its other end, it will be the same as knocking it over.
4. Must have constant forward motion. If the contestant stops and backs up, it is considered a broken pattern.

QUALITY ASSURANCE

1. The San Patricio/Aransas Counties Agricultural & Homemakers Show specifically reserves the right to have tissue, blood or urine laboratory analysis made on any animal entered for competition. The conclusions reached by the veterinarian, as to whether such animal has been administered a diuretic, unapproved growth stimulant or other unapproved medication, or has not been properly withdrawn from approved drugs shall be final, without recourse against the San Patricio/Aransas Counties A&H Show or any of its officers.
2. An exhibitor of an animal producing any analysis with a quantity of diuretic, unapproved growth stimulant or other unapproved medication, or has not been properly withdrawn from approved drugs will be subject to penalties which may include but are not limited to loss of premium monies and awards. Exhibitors could be subject to disqualification from the auction or may be required to forfeit auction proceeds and may lose the privilege of future participation in the San Patricio/Aransas County Agricultural and Homemakers Show. Penalties will be prescribed by the A&H Show Board of Directors or it's duly appointed representatives.
3. Samples will be collected by a licensed veterinarian OR a designated committee. All Grand Champions and Reserve Champions will be tested, except in Carcass contest where only the champion will be tested. Prior to the show, the A&H Show Board may determine a number or percentage of random samples to also be taken. Samples may be collected at any time during the show once the animal is officially checked in to the show.
4. The testing committee reserves the right to pre-determine a set time limit on the collection of RANDOM samples prior to the start of the show. This pre-determined time limit will be agreed upon by the committee before the first random animal is selected and will be followed on all random collections for that year. If an animal selected for random testing does not urinate in the pre-determined time, no urine sample will be collected. However, the Board reserves the right to collect blood or tissue samples for testing.

HERDSMANSHIP RULES

1. HERDSMANSHIP RESPONSIBILITY: Herdsmanship duties are the responsibility of exhibitors rather than leasers and parents.
2. BEGIN AND ENDING TIMES: Herdsmanship begins at the time the division of livestock (beef, sheep, hogs, goats, poultry, rabbits) is to be in place and ends one hour after animals are released.
3. DISPLAY OF ANIMALS: All animals should be in their stalls or pens between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. except for weighing, washing, exercising, and showing. All pens and stalls should be clearly identified with club/chapter name and exhibitor's names.
4. CLEANING OF STALLS/PENS: Stalls and pens should be thoroughly cleaned between 5:00 p.m. and 9:00 a.m. Spot cleaning will be required throughout the day, but manure carts, wheel barrows, buckets, etc. should not be left unattended in the alleys and barns at any time.
5. DIVISIONS JUDGED SEPARATELY: Each livestock division (beef, sheep, hogs, goats, poultry and rabbits) will be judged separately. One award will be given in each division to the highest scoring club/chapter.
6. SWEEPSTAKE AWARD: A cumulative total will be calculated for each club/chapter from each of the divisions. The club/chapter with the most points in all divisions combined will be the Sweepstake winner.
7. RESULTS: Results for each division, as well as the sweepstakes winner will be announced Saturday just before the auction.
